About the Adal Centre Project

The Adal Centre is more than a building — it’s a dream for our community.

It will be:

 A Place of Worship – A dedicated prayer space for men and women.

 A Place of Learning – Qur’an and Arabic classes, tutoring, and life-skills programs for youth.

 A Family Hub – Events, celebrations, and gatherings that strengthen family bonds.

 A Space for Youth – Indoor sports and healthy living programs.

 A Community Home – A welcoming centre where faith, education, and togetherness thrive.

This project is a response to the growing Muslim population in Melbourne’s northern suburbs, especially our youth who face many challenges. The Centre will provide a strong foundation of Islamic values, cultural identity, and community belonging.
